

Camden County Georgia offers a wide variety of parks and trails for outdoor exploration and fun. Home to 25 county parks and boat ramps, Crooked River State Park and Cumberland Island National Seashore, Camden County is full of natural beauty.

Located on the far southeast corner of Georgia along the Florida border, this area is popular for birding, biking hiking and all kinds of water activities like fishing, kayaking, Stand Up Paddle boarding, shrimping, crabbing and boating.

Great weather, great location! Get out and play every day!
